

Product Sheet

Tajima Software MAESTRO

Category: Software

Tajima Software MAESTRO

Embroidery software for the ultimate in design creation

Maestro is the most easy-to-understand and sophisticated embroidery software available today. It is the flagship product of Tajima Software, creator of object-oriented embroidery software. Maestro provides all the tools you could ever want to create advanced embroidery designs. Maestro includes magnificent text and editing capabilities, as well as a new dimension in special stitch effects.

- Ability to create your own fonts, which are completely equivalent to the included embroidery fonts
- "Wave appearance" on stitches
- The "wave effect" is available for all stitch types in a "Complex fill"

Product description

Tajima Software MAESTRO

Embroidery software for the ultimate in design creation

Maestro is the most user-friendly and sophisticated embroidery software available today. It is the flagship product of Tajima Software, creator of object-oriented embroidery software. Maestro provides all the tools you could ever want to create advanced embroidery designs. Maestro includes magnificent text and editing capabilities, as well as a new dimension in special stitch effects.

Advanced VBE functions, automated productivity-enhancing features and special stitch effects provide the most powerful tool for creating fantastic designs.

The most sophisticated embroidery software on the market today

Description

- Ability to create your own fonts, which are completely equivalent to the included embroidery fonts
- "Wave appearance" on stitches
- The "wave effect" is available for all stitch types in a "Complex fill"
- Progressive change of programmable running stitches
- Includes LAN licence (wired connection required)
- 64-bit version of Windows operating system required