

Product Sheet

Presser feet and accessories

Category: Other solutions

Presser feet and accessories for industrial sewing machines

To achieve the best sewing results, it is important to use the right presser foot. We offer a wide range of presser feet adapted for different applications – from zippers, buttonholes and hems to edge stitching and decorative details. Our presser feet work for thin, thick and technical materials and can be adapted to most machine models on the market. For special needs, we can also supply special solutions for unique sewing projects.

- For sewing zippers, buttonholes and hems
- Edge stitching and decorative details
- Working with thin, thick or technical materials

Product description

Presser feet and accessories

To achieve the best possible sewing results, it is important to use the right presser foot for the right application. We offer a wide range of presser feet for industrial sewing machines – adapted for different types of sewing, such as zippers, buttonholes, hems, edge stitching and much more.

Whether you work with fine sewing or heavy materials, we can help you find the right solution. We have presser feet that fit most industrial machines on the market and can also assist with special solutions if needed.

Examples of areas of use

- For sewing zippers, buttonholes and hems
- Edge stitching and decorative details
- Working with thin, thick or technical materials
- Adaptation for different machine models
- Special solutions for unique sewing needs